Honorable Gordon Gray
Director
Office of Defense Mobilization
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Gray:

In response to the request in the memorandum of 15 October 1957, signed by Mr. Victor E. Cooley, we have examined Mobilization Plan C, dated 1 June 1957, in terms of its effect upon our mission and functions under the conditions assumed.

This examination indicates that this Agency will need no Presidential Action Documents for the implementation of its plans under the assumptions of Mobilization Plan C.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director

By the terms of a memorandum from Mr. Victor E. Cooley, Acting Director of Defense Mobilization, dated 15 October 1957 (Subject: Submission of Defense Mobilization Documents -- Mobilization Plan C), the heads of all departments and agencies were called upon to submit to the Office of Defense Mobilization all Presidential Action Documents required for the implementation of their respective portions of Mobilization Plan C, dated 1 June 1957.

Study of this matter by the major components of this Agency indicates that we shall require no Presidential Action Documents to carry on our mission and functions under the assumptions of
